

Do You Need To Implement A Client Portal Into Your Business? [Checklist]

Complete this checklist to determine whether a client portal could be a potential software solution for your business.

- ☐ Do you have 10 or more clients and/or employees to manage?
- ☐ Do you have remote employees and/or clients located worldwide?
- ☐ Do you communicate with multiple clients and/or employees daily?
- ☐ Do you work to maintain impeccable client care and communication?
- ☐ Do you regularly exchange e-mails with your clients and/or employees?
- ☐ Do you regularly exchange files with your clients and/or employees?
- ☐ Do you need to upload/download multiple documents at once?
- ☐ Do your clients require instant access to their files/folders?
- ☐ Do you require audit trails in order to track approvals and amendments made by your clients and/or employees?
- ☐ Do you require the ability to set up tasks for your clients and/or employees?
- ☐ Do you need access to a shared calendar for yourself and your clients and/or employees?

Based on the number of boxes that you've checked will determine how appropriate a client portal solution will be for your firm. So, if you have ticked at least 8 of the boxes above, then a client portal may be a suitable investment for your business to make.
